

Company Profile

OVERVIEW OF AL-KABARITI GROUP

Al-Kabariti Group is a certified and diversified family owned business based in Jordan which offers integrated and reliable services that have improved through years of experience and the loyalty of our customers.

OUR SERVICES

Al-Kabariti Group offers various services and logistics in the transportation field which include but are not limited to the following: crane services, parcel services and land transportation, heavy machinery & heavy duty equipment rental and supply, caravan rentals, maintenance services, labor forces, electrical towers and power station installations as well as logistics management for film & TV productions

Our services are served by truly professional people and a variety of certified equipment. Experience and knowledge make Al-Kabariti Group a strategic choice

EXPERIENCE

We have a wide array of firsthand experience, a brief mention of our latest jobs is mentioned below.

Tek Solar L.L.C. (currently ongoing) a renewable energy company constructing solar stations in Jordan: We provide them with logistics & consultation services such as rental vehicles, transportation services, heavy machinery, accommodation, and acquiring the necessary legal permits and documents required.

Sahara Forest Projects (currently ongoing): a Norwegian company specialized in the construction and operation of energy- and water-efficient saltwater-cooled greenhouses for growing high value crops in the desert. We provide them with logistic & consultation services such as transportation, rental vehicles, apartments, heavy machinery, project management, freight clearance, labor as well as assisting them in the governmental procedures and applications.

Desert Technologies a renewable energy company constructing solar stations in Jordan: We provide them with logistics such as cars and transportation services.

REM, a Turkish company tasked with building the new port in Aqaba, Jordan. We provide them with machinery and heavy equipment to assist in their operations.

Saraya Aqaba, we provide them with cranes, telehandlers, trailers and various other transportation services for the construction of the Saraya Residential complex.

USAID Jordan LENS project, We provide them with logistics services such as providing them transportation to the local enterprises across Jordan.

GASCO an Egyptian natural gas company in charge of installing and maintaining natural gas pipelines that extend from Egypt to Lebanon through Jordan. We provided them with logistical services such as vehicles, labor, and lodging.

Global Energy an Italian company responsible for constructing solar power stations in Jordan: We provide them with logistics such as apartments, cars, telehandlers as well as container transportation.

IMSAT, a Romanian Company which had a contract in the Phosphate industrial complex (south beach): We provided them with machinery and equipment such as cranes and trailers to erect the chimneys of the Phosphate plant, as well as dismantle the old chimneys and transport them out of the plant.

Jordanian Petroleum Refinery Company: We constantly work with them during their facility maintenance. We provide cranes and transportation services.

Jordan Phosphate Mines: Similar to the Jordanian Petroleum Company, we work with them during their facility maintenance and provide Cranes and transportation services.

Port of Aqaba: Although they have their cranes and equipment, however they contact us in emergency cases when their equipment malfunctions for the purpose of loading/unloading vessels

Aqaba Container Terminal: We are constantly contacted by local suppliers which have incoming shipments in regard to the loading/unloading of their shipments and transporting them to their facilities.

Larsen & Toubro: an Indian multi-national conglomerate company that was in charge of constructing the Abdoun Bridge. We provided them with low-beds for transporting precast concrete (46 tons per piece) as well as providing cranes to load/unload the low-beds and lift the precast concrete to construct the bridge.

Van Oord: a Dutch contractor of the Arab Potash company, we constantly provide them with cranes for facility maintenance as well as lifting the pontoons from the Dead Sea for maintenance purposes and then returning them.

Sun Edison Inc. a global renewable energy company, we provided them with low-beds and cranes to load their transformers from the port of Aqaba and transported them to their site for unloading.

Films & Movies: We are constantly working with the film industry, whenever movies are being filmed in Jordan we are contacted to supply equipment and provide logistic services such as cars, vans, telehandlers, cranes, trailers, tower lights, generators, fuel, materials & supplies, transportation services, etc.... Examples of the latest movies we have worked with include: Star Wars: The Rise of Skywalker, A Private War, Aladdin, The Martian, Los Alamos and Zero Dark Thirty